THE TELEPHONE

An Assured Success.

Yesterday Mr. Huff, superintendent of the East Tennessee telephone company, succeeded in securing the number of subscribers necessary to warrant building an exchange, and now Knoxville will be on the same footing with other cities in this the greatest convenience of the age.

Nearly al classes of business are represented in his list of subscribers, and the convenience will be great to each and every one.

Mr. Huff leaves this evening for Chattanooga to place instruments for some forty subscribers there, who have applied for the same since the canvassing was begun here. This shows how the telephone is appreciated wherever introduced.

The subscription list here will be left in the hands of Mr. J. C.
